

THE DAILY JOURNAL

Is the best daily paper published on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, east of Sacramento, and having a general circulation throughout the State, it is especially valuable as an advertising medium.

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL have a combined circulation larger than that of any interior journal of Nevada, excepting those of the Comstock.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

And now Mrs. Tilton will lecture. Subject, "Woman's Fall."

Lord Beaconsfield's impeachment was demanded in the House of Commons yesterday.

The Vermont Third District Republicans have nominated Gen. Grout for Congress.

The survey of the Amazon river is progressing nicely. Over 872 miles have been surveyed.

Fassel Castrino, arrested on suspicion of murdering his wife in San Bernardino has confessed.

Sitting Bull is among the Sioux, trying to incite them to rebel, with good prospects of succeeding.

They are getting anxious about the Chinese steamer City of Tokio, now five days over-due in San Francisco.

The Nevada Bank has sold the Government 1,000,000 ounces of fine silver, to be paid for in standard dollars.

Fannie Burdett, the smallest woman on record, gave birth to a child in St. Louis yesterday. The child did not live.

The sands off Ocean Beach, San Francisco, have been discovered to contain gold, and excitement prevails in the Bay city.

Col. Jas. G. Fair has no idea of being a candidate for Congress. He places himself squarely on this denial to a Gold Hill News reporter.

The debris case, or the fight between the farmers and miners of California over the tailings washed down upon the plains, is now being tried in Marysville.

C. H. Harrison, the present incumbent of the Second Congressional District of Illinois, has 45 votes less than his contestant, G. R. Davis, who will contest his seat next session.

A QUESTION OF POLICY.

One question which just now agitates the minds of Republicans is whether the State Convention at Eureka shall endorse the Administration of the President, or whether the subject be ignored. That there are wide differences of opinion cannot for a moment be questioned, nor can the fact be concealed that many who have favored such a course are now pronounced opponents. They do not desire to censure, nor are they willing to improve, but insist that the Convention merely meet and nominate the best men for the several offices, and at once begin an aggressive campaign, entirely ignoring the Administration in State affairs. They claim that such a course cannot be understood as opposing the President, neither can the Democracy say it is treating Mr. Hayes with disrespect.

The amendment to be submitted Sir Charles Dilke in the House of Commons to the motion of the Chancellor of the Exchequer for a grant to the Duke of Connaught, betrothed to the Princess Marie Louise of Prussia, does not impugn the constitutionality of the application, but proposes to postpone consideration of the subject until the Government lays before the House a return showing the number of princes; and thus endowed, and other information on the subject since the accession of William III.

The Liberian emigrant bark Azore arrived at Charleston, S. C., Wednesday. She brought as passengers fifteen colored persons sent out last winter by the American Colonization Society. The emigrants carried to Monrovia by the Azore were being cared for at last accounts by the Liberian Government. The Azore will probably take out another ship-load of emigrants next month.

Nothing has been received at the War Department either confirmation or denying the report that McKenzie with 800 men at his back, has crossed the Rio Grande into Mexico, or that had he done so, would not create any surprise in the department.

FROM THE NEVADA TRANSCRIPT

One apparent fact now confronting the North, is the fixed determination on the part of the South to force upon the country the payment of the rebel war claims. The action of the Democrats in the last Congress had a very suspicious leaning in that direction, but the introduction of an amendment to the Constitution to forever prohibit such payment, was the occasion of sixty-two Southern Democrats to place themselves squarely on the record in favor of paying the Southern war claims. With a near certainty of a Democratic majority in the Senate, it is wise to consider this question and see to it that none but true men and loyal are returned to Congress. With the depressed condition of our industries, it is not a pleasant anticipation that we and our children may be oppressed by the tax-gatherer, to pay the claims of those who fought four years to destroy the union. The soldiers who risked all for the old flag will do well to remember that the day is near at hand unless they are keenly on the alert, when they will need to ask the Democratic Congress to remove their disabilities. Nor is this all. The action of the Democratic House of last Winter in relation to pensions, is but the precursor of an advanced movement against the pensioning of any more invalid soldiers of the late war. The fifteen thousand pension agents in the country, who have prepared the cases of thousands of disabled soldiers discover a disposition in the legislation of the last House to prevent filing any more pension claims of any kind. In the near future the blue and the gray will confront each other in Congress, the gray in the vantage ground. Every union soldier should be awake to the danger of the hour. The attitude of the Democratic party on the question of the election of President is such as to raise great doubts of the future. With bulldozing, murders and tampering with returns, they essayed in the last campaign to elect Tilden. Finding they were beaten, money was lavishly spent to debauch Returning Boards. This scheme failing, they favor revolution. True men of both parties united upon a plan for a commission, as the only means of preventing civil strife. They met, and under their solemn oaths Mr. Hayes was declared entitled to his seat and was inaugurated. These same revolutionists were not satisfied, his title was assailed and the people's money is now being squandered—to send committees here and there to hunt the McLins, Jenks, Webers and others to furnish material to run the Democratic machine during the Fall elections.

A PITEOUS APPEAL.

We publish elsewhere, a letter from Ex-Congressman Conway, of Kansas, to the people of his State, in which, judging from his letter, there is not the slightest particle of dementia. The case is one of the most curious ever coming under our observation, and it would seem that Conway's friends ought to attend to it. Conway was arrested some years ago in Washington on the charge of attempting to assassinate Senator Pomeroy. We believe he did fire one or two pistol shots. He was at one time a Judge in Kansas; and was Representative in Congress in the early days of the war. He is an ultra Abolitionist, and lost his political hold in Kansas through extreme speeches in Congress. His friends have understood for some time that he was confined in a lunatic asylum, and that there was to be no prosecution for the attempt on Senator Pomeroy's life.

A CORRESPONDENT says General Garfield goes about his farm in a broad-brimmed chip hat, with his trousers tucked in a pair of stout cowhide boots, giving directions to his hired men and lending a hand at the haying and harvesting. None of his Washington friends, should they see him driving a yoke of oxen in the boiling sun and emphasizing with a gad the stentorian shouts of "Gee," "Haw" and "Whoo, Back!" without which no oxen seem able to do a proper amount of work, would have suspected that the broad-shouldered, sun-burned farmer under the chip hat was the famous Republican chief, fresh from parliamentary victories on the floor of Congress.

A BILL for the punishment of tramps passed the New Hampshire House Wednesday. It provides for their punishment by imprisonment from fifteen months to five years, the former penalty being provided for any person proved a tramp.

A NICE PAIR.

From the Nevada Transcript we learn something concerning a couple of noted characters, whom the "601" fired out of Reno two years ago:

Wm. Kehew and Agnes Miller were brought here from Truckee in April, 1877, and locked up in the County Jail on a charge of petit larceny. After their terms had expired, the model couple rented a house on Pine street, and started an institution of questionable character. Soon afterward several attempts were made to destroy the city by fire, and Kehew was suspected. He was ordered to leave finally, which he did, going to Marysville with his paramour. A few months ago, he was arrested in his new home for committing a robbery, and sent to San Quentin. On Saturday last Agnes Miller, who was doubtless lonely away from her love, and had committed the deed so as to be placed near him, was committed in Marysville of receiving stolen goods, and sent to the Penitentiary for eighteen months. These disreputable characters are now out of harm's way for awhile, but whenever they get out again should be closely watched. They are probably the worst pair on the Coast.

THE WATT MONUMENT.

A movement has been fairly inaugurated among the workingmen of Nevada county, for raising a large subscription with which to erect a monument over the grave of William Watt, in the cemetery at Grass Valley. The Nevada Transcript says: An opportunity will before long be given every laborer in the section named to contribute as much or as little as he may feel able. We are certain that none will fail to respond in some degree. Mr. Watt has done too much for the laboring classes to permit his history soon being forgotten by them, and they will gladly seize the opportunity to assist in marking his grave with a fitting testimonial to the deeds that created in their hearts a love for him and his.

PERUVIAN journals state that on the first of the month twenty-five men from San Pehlo invaded the town of San Miguel and began to sack it. The inhabitants attacked the invaders with uncontrollable fury. The result was that fifteen of the gang were instantly killed, whilst the remaining ten were severely wounded and taken prisoners. On the following day the latter all died, and the public square of San Miguel offered the revolting spectacle of twenty-five corpses strewn in all directions.

THE NEW ROUTE.—The new railroad route to San Francisco, via Benicia, Martinez and Oakland, over the California Pacific Railroad and Terminal Railway, will be open for travel on or about August 1st. It is expected that through this change the time between Reno and San Francisco will be shortened nearly an hour.

THE PERMANENCE OF EUREKA.

The Leader publishes the following relative to the mining condition around Eureka:

The dividend of $150,000 paid by the Eureka Consolidated Company on the 20th instant, makes a total of $2,650,000 disbursed by that company since its incorporation, against assessments levied amounting to $100,000 or a clear profit to the stockholders of $51 per share since the mine was worked by the present owners. No other base bullion mine in the world can show a better record and the only approach to it is the Richmond, the adjoining property, which is the same lode and should be considered as identical when figuring on the output of Ruby Hill. Since the starting of the furnace on Eureka ore in the Spring of 1870 up to the present date, Ruby Hill has yielded $40,000,000 in gold and silver, and the lowest point reached in the workings is only 1,000 feet. It may be safely asserted on the authority of past observations, that there is no class of mines so permanent as base metal deposits. No known instance of a well defined vein of this character giving out has been recorded, and there are base metal mines that have been worked continuously for 2,000 years. The developments on the great mineral belt of Eureka District indicates that it will prove no exception to the rule. The ore deposits continue downwards and increase in size and value as depth is gained. The 11th level of the Consolidated yielded largely, and there is every reason to believe that the 12th will do as well. Ore has been met at the lowest point reached in the Richmond. The 7th level, in the K. K. Con., contains ore in large quantities, and there is no doubt but that the vein will be as prolific at a depth of 2,000 feet as on the surface. The belt is hardly explored as yet, but the developments made are pointing to an increase in its yield of precious metals.

PARTRIDGE & BALDWIN's new mill at Washoe, the "Success," was started up last Tuesday and is working well. The proprietors have an immense deposit of tailings on hand the average assay of which is sufficiently high to insure them a fortune.

We are requested by M. H. Morris, Secretary, to notify the members of the Chebra Brith Sholam that the regular meeting takes place on next Sunday at 3 o'clock P. M., at the Odd Fellows' Hall. A full attendance is desired.

COMPLAINT is made that the boys are raiding on the Chinese gardens near the river. The boys destroy the young vegetables and John objects.

THE transactions in real estate are very light just now; holders' demand such prices as many seekers are unwilling to advance.

A PARTY is being made up to go to Grizzly Valley, Independence and Weber Lakes, for a two weeks fishing and hunting trip.

THE social of the Congregational Church will be held next Friday, instead of this evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

THE Nevada Bank has reduced the limit of loans on California to $5 per share; the limit on Consolidated Virginia remains as before, $5.

We have no new candidate this morning, but we have two on a string, and the chances are it will be our treat to-morrow.

MR MERRILL will open the Saddle Rock Restaurant on Monday next, and will conduct it in good style.

FOUR prisoners in the county jail.

Brevities.

Don't forget the citizens' meeting next Monday evening.

Tickle grass is getting the best of some of the ranchers down on the Meadows.

Office room to rent in the Odd Fellows' building. Fine location, $15 per month.

We haven't noticed any bullion shipments from the bonanzas for a long time. Just think of California down to 8 1/2 and Con. Va. 7 1/2.

An assessment of one cent per share has been levied on the Consolidated Sunrise. See official notice in our advertising columns.

The Democratic County Central Committee will meet at the Court House at 1 P. M. to-day. All Democrats are invited to be present.

Hoz cholera prevails at Wadsworth. The beasts are seized with vomiting and purging and die in a few days. The cause of the disease is not known.

Cap. Rawlings, of Virginia, came down yesterday. To-day he will go to Pyramid and take a look at the Jones & Kinkaid mine. Cap Rawlings is known to our "oldest inhabitant," as he was a Washoe City resident many years ago.

Citizens' Meeting.

A meeting of the citizens is called for Monday night at Smith's Academy of Music. The meeting is called for the purpose of discussing State Fair matters, with a view to do something to make it attractive. Sacramento, at a citizen's meeting, raised $3,000 to be offered as special premiums, etc., and Reno can and ought to be liberal in the same way. Every citizen who loves his town should be present at the meeting next Monday evening. Reno expects every man to do his duty.

Thanks.

We are indebted to M. D. Boruck, President of the California State Agricultural Society, for a complimentary ticket to the twenty-fifth annual fair to be held in Sacramento in September next. If possible we shall put in an appearance, for we are certain that the coming fair will be the best ever held in Sacramento. We know this from the efforts being made by President Boruck—efforts certain to be highly successful.

Beecher.

Beecher will be here on the 19th of August. Mr. Chas. R. Bacon, Agent, was here yesterday, and made all necessary arrangements for his appearance. The lecture he will deliver here is entitled "Wastes and Burdens of Society," his best. Admission $1; reserved seats, $1 50. Doors open at 7; lecture to commence at 8. Secure your seats as soon as the box sheet is opened at Jamison's.

Odd Fellows' Lecture.

Bro. John Bowman will deliver a lecture to the members of Truckee Lodge, I. O. O. F., at their meeting next Wednesday evening on "Objects of Odd Fellowship, and the duty of individual members." All members are requested to be present, and a cordial invitation is also extended to visiting brethren.

In the pigeon shooting match between Captain Bogardus and Mr. Wallace, of England, in London Wednesday, for £200 a side, Wallace killed seventy-one birds to Bogardus' sixty two. Of the first twenty five birds Bogardus missed sixteen.

INQUIRY at the Executive Mansion and several departments fails to produce any confirmation of the report that Captain Jenks has been appointed to a Federal office on the Pacific Coast.

A Paris correspondent recounts a long conversation with Gambetta, who generally approved of the Berlin treaty, considering that it tended to dissolve the triple alliance and draw clearer the interests of France and England.

THE New Orleans Pickayune publishes a statement that fourteen cases of yellow fever have occurred—seven fatal. The Board of Health hope to check the spread of the disease.

An Indian agent in Minnesota has notified the Commissioner of Indian Affairs that there is imminent danger of a general Sioux war this year. This is discredited in Washington.

It is suggested that the best use the Government can make of Alaska is to turn it into a penal colony under strong military supervision, and let the States abolish their penitentiaries and send thither their criminals, sentenced to life imprisonment, to be set to work.

At Rochester, Michigan, they have a good way of advertising the fools who stand on the church steps after meeting to stare at the ladies. The following card is constantly kept standing in the columns of the Era of that place: "The Donkey Club, of this village, would respectfully inform the young ladies especially and the public generally that they have made arrangements for an extensive demonstration on the steps in front of the Methodist Episcopal Church—the members locating themselves on either side of the main entrance—on Sunday evening next. Positions taken immediately after the close of the religious exercises within."

THE SIERRA NEVADA.—The body of quartz below the 2000 level of the Sierra Nevada is said, by those who have examined it, to be something entirely new and unlike anything found at any point above. They say that there appears to be a thorough change of formation, and that it is in the new formation that the North Consolidated Virginia shaft would have cut this new body of quartz had it been sunk a further depth of 150 feet.—Enterprise, 23d.

IN 1855 there were 30,000 more shoemakers in Massachusetts than there are to day, and yet the value of the products of the various factories is $79,000,000 greater per annum today than it was then. There are machines for sewing, siding, lasting, heeling, buffing, riveting, crimping, edge setting, eyeletting, blacking, and other minute of the shoemaking business, and no less than seventeen different inventions are now required for any large boot and shoe factory.

BURLINGTON Hawkeye: Poor Sammy Tilden! He never realized it himself until the other night a couple of body-snatchers from Belleville collared the old man, and tried to chuck him into a sack and run away with him. The old man succeeded at last in proving that he wasn't dead; but after the disappointed resurrectionists left, he leaned his head upon his hands in painful thought, and said at last, with a mournful intonation: "I guess it must be so."

HAYES' new Secretary of Idaho is named Sidebotham. Why the device didn't they make him Sidebotham botham and cover the whole case?

Don't Read This!

Cohn & Isaacs, next door to the Postoffice, have just received a large stock of Spring clothing of the latest styles and finest make and material. Those who want anything in the clothing line will do well to call on them and get that which is in the fashion. They have business suits in endless variety and at prices to suit all purses, and their dress suits are as fine as though made to order; a man in one of them might easily be mistaken for a French count. In the way of underwear, white shirts, neckties and all the little articles required to make up a complete rig, they are able to fit out an army. They sell everything at prices to suit the times, and have been so long in business that they know exactly what will please our people, both in price and the quality of goods furnished.
